CESSATION OF ALL CARRIAGE DRIVING ACTIVITIES IN AUSTRALIA UNTIL 30 APRIL 2020

The Federal Council of the ACDS has agreed to cease all carriage driving activities in Australia until 30 April 2020, effective 9 am on 16 March 2020.

This decision relates to all activities including CDEs, dressage days, shows, pleasure and endurance drives, fun days, rallies, meetings and any other activities organised by Clubs or State Branches.

This decision was made to ensure the ongoing health of all members, their support personnel, officials, organisers, volunteers and spectators.

Federal Council will monitor developments of COVID-19 over the next few weeks including advice from the Department of Health and the Government and will provide further advice before 30 April 2020.

PETER LEE
Federal President
